[redacted] STAT

Dear Mr. Gray:

Thank you for your letter of 26 July 1983. There is no objection to the presence of two McLean Citizens Association (MCA) representatives on the CIA Traffic Advisory Committee. It is our desire that there be one organization in the community that we can call upon to speak for the McLean area. We continue to be opposed to representation from multiple community organizations because we will then be placed in the position of negotiating agreements for the community and establishing the priorities to be accorded the various concerns presented by multiple organizations. We believe this is the purpose and intent of the McLean Citizens Association and is not a rightful role for the Executive Branch of the Federal Government.

Since we have no objection to two representatives from your organization, it is suggested that one of these representatives could be from the Ad Hoc Committee. Mrs. Gloria Adams is both a member of the MCA and the Ad Hoc Committee. In her capacity as first vice president of the MCA, it would appear that she is in an excellent position to ensure that the concerns of her local constituents are well represented by your representatives.

I have noted that there is a feeling in the subdivisions immediately surrounding the Agency Headquarters that we are attempting to purposefully deny them a voice in our planning. I would like to state for the record that this has never been the case. If the record is examined you will find that we have been responsive to the planning issues and concerns raised to date. Our current concern then is not who will be represented but how they will be represented. We firmly believe that our request to your organization to speak for the community gives all of us the
